

GARDEN TRIVIA

Q 1: What is the official National Floral Emblem of the United States?

Ans: The Rose

Q 2: Can you eat the fruit from the Monstera Deliciosa?

Ans: Yes you can – Its common name is the fruit salad plant.

Q 3: Do worms have eyes?

Ans: No they don't. (but they can sense light with photoreceptors)

Q 4: What is moon gardening?

Ans: Gardening based on the cycles of the moon (also uses zodiac signs)

Q 5: How many eggs can a chicken lay in one day?

Ans: Only one

Q 6: What is green manure?

Ans: A crop grown to be put back into the soil to add nutrients

Q 7: What is a curcurbit?

Ans: Pumpkins, squash, melons, zucchinis, cucumbers and gourds

Q 8: What poison do Almonds contain?

Ans: Cyanide! (the concentration isn't large enough to cause any harm though :)

Q 9: What roofing material is used on Parliament House in Canberra, Australia?

Ans: Grass!

Q 10: What type of fruit is an Orange?

Ans: Technically an orange is an Hesperidium, a kind of berry

